ALMA

DOCTRINAL ADDRESS BOOK

5:14	Have ye experienced this mighty change?
7:11–13	Christ takes on our pains and sicknesses
12:24	This life, a probationary state
26:12	In his strength I can do all things
32:21	Faith is not a perfect knowledge
32:28	The word as a seed
34:32	This life is the time to prepare
37:6	By small and simple things
41:10	Wickedness never was happiness
42:15	God atones, to satisfy justice and bring mercy

ALMA TO HIS SONS

son	chapters	what Alma gives him
Helaman	36–37	Alma's own conversion · the records · the Liahona	36:1
Shiblon	38	bridle all your passions	38:12
Corianton	39–42	sin · the resurrection · justice and mercy	39:1

Corianton is never named in 39–42. He is the son left over: 31:7 names all three, 38:5 names Shiblon.

EIGHT DATES TO ANCHOR IT

91 BC	Judges begin; Nehor judged (1:1)
87 BC	Amlici's revolt (2:1)
83 BC	Alma gives up the judgment seat (4:20)
81 BC	Ammonihah destroyed (16:1)
75 BC	Korihor and the Zoramites (30:5)
73 BC	The title of liberty (45:20)
67 BC	Amalickiah slain (51:37)
61 BC	The war ends (62:39)

Every date is counted in reign-of-the-judges years; year 1 is 91 BC.

MEMORY HOOKS

Alma trades the judgment seat for the pulpit (4:19–20). Nephi makes the same move in Helaman 5:1.

Chapters 17–26 rewind fourteen years: the sons of Mosiah's mission runs alongside Alma 1–16.

The people of Ammon bury their swords; their sons take them up — and none of the 2,000 die (57:25).

Alma 32–34 is one argument in three voices: faith as a seed, Zenos on prayer, Amulek on the Atonement.

Alma doesn't die on the page. He departs, and is thought buried by the Lord, like Moses (45:19).
