

ETHER

ETHER

DOCTRINAL ADDRESS BOOK

- 2:12 Serve the God of the land
- 3:15 Never has man believed as thou
- 4:12 Whatever persuades to do good is of God
- 8:24 Awake to your awful situation
- 12:4 Hope, an anchor to the soul
- 12:6 No witness until after the trial
- 12:27 Weak things become strong
- 12:41 Seek this Jesus

MORONI BREAKS INTO THE STORY

what Moroni adds

- | | |
|--|------|
| the land is choice: serve God or be swept off | 2:9 |
| the vision sealed up with the plates | 4:5 |
| three witnesses foretold | 5:3 |
| a warning about secret combinations | 8:24 |
| faith, weakness, and his farewell | 12:6 |

At least five times in fifteen chapters, the narrator steps out of the story.

EIGHT MOMENTS TO ANCHOR IT

- 1:33 Babel: the language kept
- 3:6 The finger of the Lord
- 6:11 344 days at sea
- 6:23 Kingship foretold to bring captivity
- 8:9 Jared's daughter's plan
- 12:6 No witness until after the trial of faith
- 13:13 Ether in the cave
- 15:32 Coriantumr alone

Ether gives no dates at all; the book measures time in generations.

MEMORY HOOKS

- The genealogy runs backward — from Ether to Jared — before the story runs forward (1:6–32).
- The brother of Jared is never named in the text.
- The people ask for a king and are warned it leads to captivity (6:23). The rest of the book proves it.
- Ether watches the end from a cave (13:13–14).
- Coriantumr outlives everyone and is found by the people of Zarahemla (Omni 1:21).