

HELAMAN

HELAMAN

DOCTRINAL ADDRESS BOOK

- 3:27–29 The gate of heaven stands open to all
- 4:11–13 Why they fell: pride, riches, the poor
- 5:12 The rock of our Redeemer · remember
- 6:1 The Lamanites surpass the Nephites
- 8:14–15 The brazen serpent as a type of Christ
- 10:4–7 The sealing power given to Nephi
- 12:1–6 The unsteadiness of the hearts of men
- 13:38 Seeking happiness in doing iniquity
- 14:2–27 Signs of his birth · signs of his death
- 15:7–8 Faith and repentance change the heart

THE JUDGMENT SEAT

holder	took the seat	how it ended
Pahoran II	52 BC	murdered by Kishkumen	1:9
Pacumeni	52 BC	slain by Coriantumr	1:21
Helaman II	50 BC	died in office	3:37
Nephi	39 BC	resigned to preach	5:1
Cezoram	30 BC	murdered in the seat	6:15
Cezoram's son	26 BC	murdered in the seat	6:15
Seezoram	—	murdered by his brother	8:27

Five of the seven die violently. After Seezoram the record stops naming them.

EIGHT DATES TO ANCHOR IT

- 52 BC Pahoran II murdered in the seat (1:9)
- 50 BC Gadianton's band is born (2:4)
- 33 BC Lamanites hold the land southward (4:8)
- 30 BC Nephi resigns · prison fire · the reversal (5:1)
- 23 BC Nephi on the garden tower (7:10)
- ~21 BC Nephi given the sealing power (10:7)
- 19 BC Famine, then repentance, then rain (11:4)
- 6 BC Samuel starts a five-year clock (14:2)

51 years, told straight through. Page order is time order.

MEMORY HOOKS

- 6:1 is the hinge. From there on the Lamanites are the righteous ones, and they stay that way.
- The Gadianton band forms in ch. 2 and never dies. It outlives the book and the nation.
- Two Nephite prophets can't get a hearing at home; a Lamanite on a wall can.
- Samuel starts a five-year clock in ch. 14. The book ends with a year still on it (16:24).
- Mormon stops narrating once (ch. 12), to say why the cycle keeps coming back around.