

MORMON

MORMON

DOCTRINAL ADDRESS BOOK

- 2:13 The sorrowing of the damned
- 3:20 All will stand before his judgment seat
- 7:5–7 Believe in Christ; he rose from the dead
- 8:12 Don't condemn the record for its imperfections
- 8:35 Written as if ye were present
- 9:9 The same yesterday, today, and forever
- 9:19 A God of miracles
- 9:27 Doubt not, but be believing

MORMON'S LIFE BY AGE

age	what happens
about 10	Ammaron gives him the charge	1:2
11	carried south to Zarahemla	1:6
15	visited of the Lord	1:15
16	leads the Nephite armies	2:2
about 24	told to take up the plates	1:3
old	gathers his people at Cumorah	6:6

A general at sixteen; still one at the end.

SEVEN DATES TO ANCHOR IT

- ~AD 321 Ammaron's charge to a ten-year-old (1:2)
- AD 327 Mormon leads the armies (2:3)
- AD 350 A treaty divides the land (2:28)
- AD 362 Mormon refuses to lead (3:8)
- AD 375 The Lamanites come in full force (4:17)
- AD 384 Gathering at Cumorah (6:5)
- AD 400 Moroni alone (8:6)

Counted from the coming of Christ; Mormon's age gives the early years.

MEMORY HOOKS

Mormon refuses to lead (3:11), then repents of the oath (5:1) — and leads them to the end anyway.

At Cumorah he hides every record except the abridgment he hands to Moroni (6:6).

His last words (ch. 7) go to the descendants of the army that killed his people.

Moroni writes to us as if we were present (8:35).

The book is Mormon's; the last two chapters are his son's, written alone.